PROPOSITION NO. 1
PROPOSED CITY CHARTER
AMENDMENT NO. 1

Mayor's salary, to be set by ordinance, not effective during current term of office.

Do you approve an amendment to the Charter of the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Article III, 'The Mayor', Section 1.2, 'Salary', deleting the specific, obsolete dollar amount of the Mayor's salary, and allowing the City Council to continue setting the Mayor's salary by ordinance, provided that any change in salary shall not be effective during the Mayor's current term? The proposed amended Section 1.2 reads as follows:

Section 1.2. Salary.

The Mayor shall receive a salary payable as employees of the City are paid. The annual salary received by the Mayor shall be as provided by ordinance adopted by a majority vote of the entire membership of the Council; provided, no change in salary shall become effective prior to the commencement of the term of office next succeeding the term in which the change is made and then only in the event such change was approved prior to the General Election for the next succeeding term.

PROPOSITION NO. 2

Residency requirement for candidates, three hundred sixty-five (365) days.

Do you approve an amendment to the Charter of the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Article VI, 'Election and Qualification of Officers', Section 7, requiring candidates for the office of Mayor, City Auditor and Councilor to have been residents of the City or Council District for three hundred sixty-five (365) days at the time of filing, except adjusted districts? The gist of the proposed amendment is as follows:

Section 7. Qualification of Officers.

A candidate for Mayor or City Auditor must have been a qualified elector and resident of the City for at least three hundred sixty-five (365) days at the time of filing. A candidate for City Councilor must have been a qualified elector and resident of that election district for at least three hundred sixty-five (365) days at the time of filing. This requirement shall not apply to an adjusted election district which changed a candidate's residency to a different election district; provided, a candidate must have been a qualified elector and resident within their preexisting election district for at least three hundred sixty-five (365) days at the time of filing.
